

KINESIOLOGY ASSOCIATE OF ARTS

The Hill College Student Athletic Trainer Education Program is a two-year preparatory program designed to lead to placement in a four-year bachelor's degree in Athletic Training or Sports Studies/Kinesiology thus creating the pathway to a master's degree in Athletic Training. The intent of the program is to allow students to experience the expectations of performing the duties of a student athletic trainer while gaining critical observation hours and completing the academic course work leading to an associate degree. These experiences will assist to ease the transition of the athletic training student into a bachelor's level degree.
