

Congratulations!
You are the recipient of the
Eden Green Scholarship at Hill College

Available to Eden Green Employees who enroll in the spring 2026 semester on a first come, first served basis.

This scholarship is unique because it was awarded to you from funds that have been given to Hill College by generous donors who have a passion to see Hill College students succeed. Please read the following carefully before signing this letter and complete all fields. Your signature below indicates to Hill College that you understand and agree to the following:

- I am pleased to accept this scholarship to attend Hill College. I also understand that the scholarship cannot be awarded until my application for admissions is on file with the Office of Student Information Services. This scholarship will be made available for use at Hill College during the 2026 spring semester based on the number of hours enrolled and will cover 75% of my tuition and fees.
- By accepting this award, I understand that if I qualify for federal aid the total amount of awards cannot exceed the annual cost of attendance (student's budget).
- I understand this is awarded on a first come, first served basis.
- Please return this letter of acceptance to the Office of Student Information Services as soon as possible, if you choose to accept your scholarship. 0

Hill College faculty and staff look forward to you attending our institution of higher education.
