

HILL COLLEGE

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Hill College is committed to the principle of equal opportunity in education and employment. The college does not discriminate against individuals on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, genetic information, or veteran status in the administration of its educational programs, activities, or employment policies.

ACCOMMODATIONS AND NONDISCRIMINATION

Federal law prohibits the College from making preadmission inquiries regarding a student's disability. Information regarding a student's disability, voluntarily given or inadvertently received, will not adversely affect any admission decision. If a student requires special services and/or accommodations as a result of a disability, the student must notify the Academic Advising and Success Center. This voluntary self-identification allows Hill College to prepare appropriate support services and/or accommodations to facilitate the student's learning. Confidentiality of the information will be maintained in accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as Amended (FERPA), and shared only with College officials with a legitimate educational interest in the information. To the extent reasonably appropriate, the college will provide special services and/or accommodations to qualified individuals with a disability in accordance with Section 504 the Rehabilitation Act, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), ADA Amendments Act, and Title IX.

Disabilities/ADA

Reports of discrimination based on disability may be directed to the ADA/Section 504 coordinator. The College District designates the following person to coordinate its efforts to comply with Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended, which incorporates and expands the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended:

Name: Lizza Trenkle, Vice President Student Services
Address: 112 Lamar Drive, Hillsboro, TX 76645
Telephone: (254) 659-7601

Students with qualified and documented disabilities may request accommodations which will enable them to participate in and benefit from educational programs and activities. Students should contact the Academic Advising and Success Center for more details at 254-659-7650 for Hill County Campus, 817-760-5650 for Johnson County Campus, or 817-295-7392 for Burleson Center.

Title IX

Reports of discrimination based on sex, including sexual harassment or gender-based harassment, may be directed to the Title IX Coordinator. The College District designates the following person to coordinate its efforts to comply with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended:

Name: Jamie Jaska, Director of Human Resources
Address: 112 Lamar Drive, Hillsboro, TX 76645
Telephone: (254) 659-7731

The College District prohibits discrimination, including harassment, against individuals on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, genetic information, or veteran status in the administration of its educational programs, activities, or employment policies. Retaliation against anyone involved in the complaint process is a violation of College District policy and is prohibited.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Students:

Thank you for your interest in Hill College. On behalf of our faculty and staff, I look forward to helping you prepare for an exciting and rewarding future as you reach your educational goals. Whether you are interested in acquiring skills in preparation for work, interested in preparing to transfer to a four-year institution, or simply fulfilling a personal interest, Hill College has something for you.

There are many opportunities awaiting you at Hill College. Hill College has a rich history of providing excellence in teaching and student success. We have dedicated and innovative faculty, as well as knowledgeable and caring staff whose focus is to enrich the lives of the students we serve. We have nationally ranked athletic teams, a show stopping music and fine arts department, high tech academic and workforce training educational programs, a first-class History Museum, and a family-type atmosphere where students come first.

We provide excellent teaching and learning experiences, high quality courses and learning environments, innovation and flexibility in the delivery of courses and services, advanced technology, academic and student support services to maximize student success, access to local, state and federal aid and scholarships, and access to and support for lifelong learning.

Graduating from college is a predictor of future success. When you consider the economic benefits in acquiring an education in addition to the personal, intellectual enrichment that an education imparts, I think that you will agree that Hill College provides an affordable quality education and is the best choice you can make. We stand ready to share your educational journey with you and equip you with the skills you need to be successful.

Best wishes for a successful educational experience at Hill College!

Pam Boehm, Ed.D.
